Faithful Navigator's Message

My Brother Sir Knights,

Spring is knocking at the door. This is a very busy time for most people. Even those of us who don't farm have our spring chores to do. Add to this our Lenten preparation for Easter, and our daily concerns with: the economy; the war; the election; immigration and myriad other concerns and the world can become a frightening if not overwhelming place. This is not only true for you and me, but also for all the people around us. Who can calm their fears? Who can lead them? Who can they turn to?

As busy as you are, I am going to ask you to do me a favor, a little required reading if you will. If you still have your February edition of the Columbian magazine, go to page 30 and read the article titled "The Dedicated Few". For you see, it is you, the Knights of Columbus who are called to lead. Both by your example and by your words, you are called to lead the people of faith. Let me share with you and excerpt for the article.

"The Knights of Columbus is an order that finds the purpose of its existence in its staunch support of the entire program of the Church. To every Knight there is given the charge to so prepare himself that he can truly represent the Church wherever he goes. He must represent her by his virtuous life, by his Catholic viewpoint, by his zeal for good, and his staunch opposition to all that would bring secularism into the life of man. This is what it means to be a Knight – for honor comes only to the worthy."

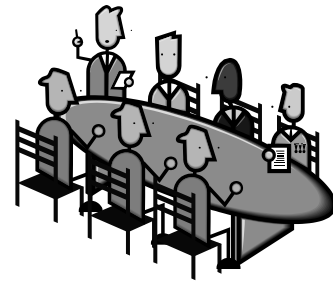

Bishop John King Mussio

Take a minute and read the rest of the article, it is well worth it.

If you didn't make the meeting you were one of the few, the turn out was really good. Sir Knights Corky Mello and Jack Kasper did a fine job with the meal, filling in while Sir Knight Mike Breverly recuperates. Thanks to all.

Vivat Jesus

Winner of the 50/50 Drawing was SK Daniel Wayne...$21.00.

“IF” Drawing:

At our General Business Meeting every month a drawing is made from all members’ names to win some cash.

“IF” Sir Knight James Genelli would have been in attendance, he would have won the drawing for $100.

You must be present to win.

PLEASE. . . Pray always for our military men and women.

"Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us.

Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. I ask this in the name of thy Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. Amen"

When you read this, please stop for a moment and say this prayer for our ground, air and navy personnel in Iraq and everywhere. Of all the gifts you could give to anyone in the US Military, be it Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force, or National Guard, Prayer is the best one...
